

The Home Winner

Gene Lindberg,
1903-1983Alfred M. Durham, 1872-1957
arr. Laurel Hunt Pedersen

Pro-phets gaz-ing t'ward the moun-tains, Once fore

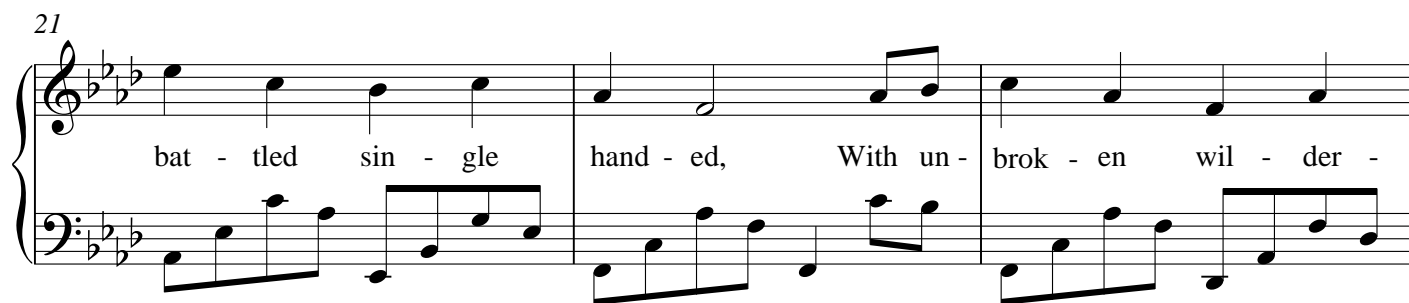

5
saw a prom-ised land, They saw fields in de - sert val - leys, They saw

9
might - y ci - ties stand. On the hills, but all their dream-ing Would not find ful - fill - ment now. Had the hand that rocked the cra - dle Lacked the 17

13

strength to guide the plow. Men who 21

bat - tled sin - gle hand - ed, With un - brok - en wil - der -

24

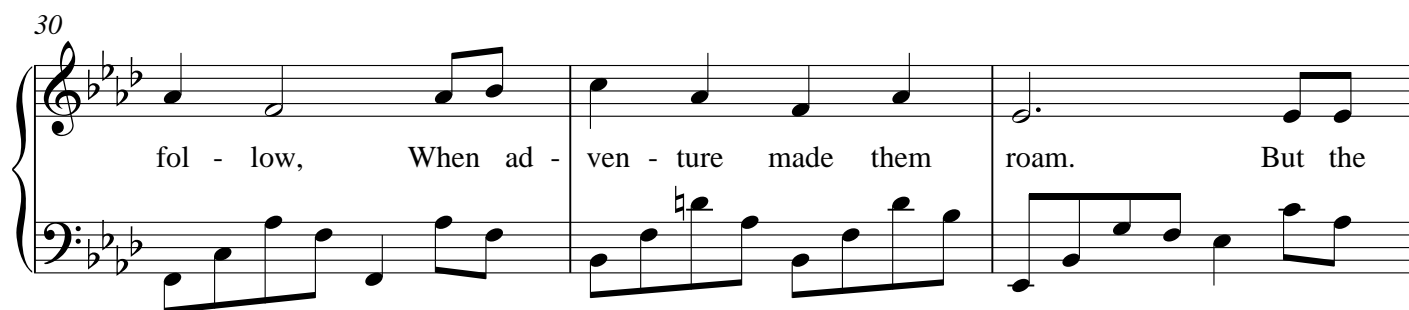

ness, Stag - gered back at last de - feat - ed, By the 27

curse of lone - li - ness. Men made trails for men to 30

fol - low, When ad - ven - ture made them roam. But the 33

trail a wom - an fol - lowed Led, un - er - ring to a home. Home! No price of toil and 40

36

pa - tience, Was too great for her to pay, Dan - ger, suf - fer - ing and hard - ship; Through them all she found a - way. Her in-

43

47

don - i - ta - ble cour - age Ban - ished doubt and con - quer'd fear. She was 51

Moth - er, Wife and Part - ner Ev - every inch a Pi - o - neer.