

There Are Friends That We Never Forget

Alice Hawthorne

Septimus Winner, 1827-1902

arr. Laurel Hunt Pedersen

There are friends that we nev - er for - get,

There are hearts that we ev - er hold dear. Though we meet with a kiss in a mo - ment of bliss. Yet we part with a sigh and a tear. Oh we learn our first les - sons of love, At the home where our child - hood was passed,

26

And we nev - er for - get though we part with re - gret, The friends of our youth fill the last. There are friends, there are 36

31

friends that we nev - er for - get, There are hearts that we ev - er hold

41

dear. Though we meet with a kiss in a mo - ment of 46

bliss, Yet we part with a sigh and a tear.
